New Business:
Candidates for Election (3 Guests)
Paul M Sullivan is running for Judge in the 113th District Court Harris County, Texas. He is an experienced civil litigator licensed in state and federal courts. He is dedicated to the constitution and fairness, admitted to the U.S. Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals, and admitted to the U. S. Supreme Court. A judge should follow the law, be fair and unbiased. He wants to make our system a little more efficient.

Jacqueline Lucci Smith is running for Harris County Attorney. She wants to restore lawful leadership. She was a former judge and Assistant County Attorney. Ms. Smith stated she (1) Defend Harris County, has a strong, experienced legal representation, focused on protecting the county and our taxpayers (2) Support Law Enforcement, standing behind those who protect our communities, with clear legal guidance and accountability, (3) Uphold the Law, ensuring county government operates within the Constitution and serves the public with integrity. The law, not politics, should guide Harris County government.

Marian Wright is running for AT Large 4 position, spoke briefly about her job and she stated she is running on common sense which we need to meet the public's input.

Comments: We are researching whether we can fine the residents who are in violations of the Deed Restrictions.

Concerns: None.
